

The Natural World, the Sustainable Development Goals, and the Law

International Online Symposium
&
Hon Justice CD Gonthier Memorial Lectures

Friday, 26 July 2024

9:00-16:30 Montreal | 14:00 - 21:30

Cambridge

Are you interested in innovations in climate change, biodiversity, and natural resources law that can foster sustainable development worldwide?

Do you wish to deepen your knowledge of the interlinkages between sustainable development and the natural world?

If so, please join Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL) and partners for the 2024 biennial online global symposium and Hon Justice CD Gonthier Memorial Lectures, featuring world-leading law and governance experts and leaders in global sustainability and justice. Register here:

2024 International Biennial
Opening Chairs

Prof Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger (CISDL / Univ of Cambridge)

Hon Elizabeth Maruma Mrema (UNEP)

2024 Justice CD Gonthier Memorial Lecturers

Justice Kathy-Ann Brown (International Tribunal on the Law of the Sea, Jamaica)

Prof Christina Voigt (CISDL / IUCN WCEL / Univ of Oslo)

With all appreciation for the support of: